

Short biography

Dottorato di ricerca in: REGGIO CHILDHOOD STUDIES - Corso di Dottorato (D.M.45/2013) - Reggio childhood studies

Research project title

Adventurers' adventures as a spark to resume experiential activities in places where human activities are sustainable and in defence of biodiversity

- 2 December 2023 Rimini (Italy): Speaker at national conference on outdoor education organised by UNIBO). Topics covered: outdoor adventure proposals after the pandemic <https://scienzequalitavita.unibo.it/it/eventi/studi-e-ricerche-in-outdoor-education>

- 3 November 2020: first year as PhD student. Field of research: Outdoor Adventure Education.

Supervisors

- Mike Brown, Associate Professor Outdoor Learning Head of Department, Auckland University of Technology Te Wānanga Aronui o Tāmaki Makau Rau. mike.brown@aut.ac.nz

- Alessandro Bortolotti, professor Quality of life department Unibo Alma Mater Studiorum. alessandro.bortolotti@unibo.it

- 2010-2020: History-geography teacher at public school (middle school). Rimini-Santarcangelo (Italy).

- May 2009: Achieved certification for teaching at the Italian public school. IX cycle SISS at Alma Mater Studiorum UNIBO

- December 2006: Degree in Political Science (old four-year degree programme) at Alma Mater Studiorum Bologna

- March 2001: Degree in Contemporary History (old 4-year programme) at Alma Mater Studiorum Bologna

Born and raised in Rimini (Emilia-Romagna) on 26-11-1975

Werther Giannini

Rimini (Romagna), Italy, May 2024